Rector Writes

July 2018

The Rector writes about miracle and mystery and wonder

Christians believe that God is Trinity: we know God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Alone among the three religions of Abraham – Judaism, Christianity and Islam – only Christianity believes that the one true God is a God of three persons. The doctrine that God is both three and one stretches the mind.

The Sunday after Pentecost is celebrated as Trinity Sunday. Successive Sundays through to the Autumn are ‘Sundays after Trinity’, so we have plenty of time now to meditate on God as Trinity. I was doing just that at the service at Chester Cathedral on Saturday 2nd June for the ordination of seventeen Deacons as Priests. The Reverend Fiona Robinson – known to many of us at St.Mary’s and St.Catherine’s Churches – was ordained Deacon last summer, and, as is usual for a Deacon, she was ordained priest 12 months later.

The preacher at the ordination service was the Reverend Catherine Williams - the Church of England’s National Advisor for Selection of Clergy. The Gospel reading was the Feeding of the Five Thousand. Our preacher suggested that just as we all ask ‘How can this be?’, when we read such a miracle of Jesus, so also newly ordained clergy ask “How can this be, that I find myself an authorised minister of the church and ambassador for Christ?” All clergy live with the mystery of being a minister of a message of miracle and mystery and wonder that defies logical explanation.

Immediately after ordination as priest, each new priest was given a Bible. As this took place I remembered being given my Bible by the Bishop of Newcastle when I was ordained priest 29 years ago. And the thought went through my mind that the Bible is full of miracle and mystery and wonder – and that the miracle and mystery and wonder that I find in Scripture is plenty enough for me, and that it is this miracle and mystery and wonder that is the content of Christian faith. All of us who are Baptised in Christ live within the mystery of God.

The principle that clergy follow is that ‘their ministry’ is not theirs, but God’s, and that the Christian minister walks where the Holy Spirit leads. The good number of newly ordained priests in Chester Diocese shows the health and confidence of the church. If you are wondering whether you might be being called to serve God as an ordained minister come and talk about it with me.

Revd Jon Hale

Manchester 10K Run.....Peter Reynolds

“Why has he got a wheelbarrow on his back”, Mark turned to me and asked as we entered Portland Street to join the waiting throng of runners? “I have no idea”, I replied, “have a look at his running vest it might tell you” - such is the draw of these major events that people have so many different, special reasons for their participation.

Sunday 20th May dawned bright, clear and warm, perhaps a little too warm in fact. Manchester was coming alive again for the annual ½ marathon and 10k running events which have become a hallmark of the city since the first 10k back in 2003. Mark was joining Katherine and me for a family participation in the 2018 event. Neither he nor Katherine had ever run a 10k race a before and for their first one to be the largest 10k run in Europe, was quite an introduction to running!

As we entered Portland Street to join the ‘000s of other runners, there was an announcement for a 1-minute silence – the whole city stopped and an absolute hush descended. The dreadful events of the Manchester Arena bomb which had so shocked the city and the world on 22nd May 2017 were being respectfully remembered. The very visible presence of armed police was also reminder of the tragedy of just one year before. As we looked around to find our place and get ready for the start of the run, it was impossible not to read some of the stories written on other people’s vests to tell for whom or why they were running this year. Some very poignant comments meant you felt in some way humbled to be participating alongside those who were running in memory of loved ones, sick ones or to support the huge range of wonderful charities which are the backbone of so much love and care in our society today.

At the ‘gun’, we all started together and although we were almost immediately separated in the melee, we finished within 25 seconds of each other with Mark being the fastest of our trio in 54:23, a very creditable time in the warm conditions. We never did find out why the man was carrying a wheelbarrow on his back but I am certain it was in aid of a wonderful cause. Our run this year was again for Oasis the amazing charity in Gorton, East Manchester supporting so many of the poor and homeless and poor in our great city. With the wonderful support of the congregation of St Mary, Alderley; my employer, Hilti (Great Britain) Ltd. and other supporters, we will have raised a further £620 for Oasis. I feel privileged to have been able to participate in several of these events and this year with Mark and Katherine alongside me was ‘special’. Thank you again to St Mary's without whose support we would only have raised a fraction of this money and will there be a ‘next year’ – let’s wait and see!

With our very grateful thanks, Peter, Katherine & Mark (Reynolds)

Thank you to Mark Wilkinson and Will Ablett for arranging Text Giving and Online Giving for St.Mary's Church.

Text Giving: Text SUND05 £5 to 70070 to donate £5 (the £5 can be any amount up to £10).

Online Giving: go to www.alderleychurch.co.uk and click on 'Donate to St.Mary's Church, Alderley'. There is no limit to the amount that you can donate by using online giving.

More people use a card for all payments now and do not carry cash or a cheque book. That's why more and more parish churches have Text Giving and Online Giving. These methods also enable giving by people who want to support St.Mary's Church but who do not come to the church or who live at a distance away.If you have queries about this please talk with Mark Wilkinson or Will Ablett.

The Rector writes about Judaism and art

Three years ago this summer I was fortunate to be allowed to take a three-month sabbatical from parish ministry to study 20th Century Jewish art. Having studied the history of 19th Century British and French art at school for A Level, I wanted to get more up to date with art history. And having served as a full time parish clergyman since 1988, I wanted to increase my knowledge and understanding of the Old Testament. The organisation 'Art & Christianity Enquiry' - <https://www.artandchristianity.org/> - put me in touch with a tutor who willingly led me through some of the most significant works of art criticism and history concerning Jewish painters of Europe and the USA between the 1920s and the 1980s. And I looked at a lot of paintings!

On Thursday 28th June I will be giving an illustrated talk at the meeting of Knutsford Deanery Synod on the subject of 'Judaism in the 20th Century, and into the 21st Century', and all are welcome. The talk will be at St.John's Church, High Legh, at 7.30pm.

Seeking a Family Missioner for Alderley Edge

Earlier this year a joint venture of Alderley Edge Methodist Church and St.Philip & St.James Church advertised for applicants for the new post of Family Missioner in Alderley Edge, to work with children age 0 to 11 years.

It was not possible to make an appointment so the post is being re-advertised. Find the details at this address: <http://www.chester.anglican.org/support-services/job-vacancies/external-vacancies/family-missioner-6674.php>
The Revd Robin Pye – Vicar of St.Philip & St.James Church – writes: "This is a re-advertised post and we have amended the job description to give it a much clearer focus on working with younger children. So, if you know a Christian who loves to work with young children, then it might be the right thing for them".

Alderley Mothers' Union News

Mary Sumner was a woman of faith with determination to make a difference within the lives of others around the world. She listened to God and acted on His call. We give thanks for the far-reaching vision of our founder as we remember her on Thursday 9th August, Mary Sumner Day.

Within our branch, we have a service of Holy Communion led by Rector on Wednesday 18th July at 2pm in church to finish our programme for the summer with tea in the hall afterwards.

There will be no meeting in August and we look forward to a new programme of meetings in September.

We had a good response to our appeal for socks for the refugees.. Thank you for your support.

We would love to see you at any of our meetings. There are many interesting speakers to look forward to.

Ann Austin
