Rector Writes

February 2020

The Rector writes about truth

Twelve years ago, being a Russophile, I liked to watch Russia Today. It was quirky – and Russian, and sometimes ran analysis of news items from a Russian standpoint to challenge accepted Western views of the news. Russian logic is different from Western logic! But when Russia invaded Georgia in August 2008, Russia Today was a propagandist for Vladimir Putin, and I stopped watching. Since then, Russia Today has fallen foul of Ofcom in the UK. Then President Trump became associated with ‘fake news’ and his vitriolic attacks on the press in the USA. And in the recent General Election in December, critics of the Prime Minister’s election strategy pointed to his ‘curious relationship with the truth’. In the election campaign Mr Johnson showed his disdain for the British Broadcasting Corporation.

In a world in which many receive the news online and have turned their backs on the TV and print media, we can easily select the truth that we prefer: all versions of the truth are presented as equal. But was it not always thus? In an election, each of us must exercise due caution in casting our vote, and ask ourself: ‘Is this politician lying to me?’ It is Her Majesty’s Opposition and a free press and news media who must hold the Government to the truth. Paradoxically, the freedom that the internet brings has made distortion of the truth all too easy.

In an interview by the Big Issue magazine with the Archbishop of Canterbury, just before the December election, Archbishop Justin said that he is concerned about the UK’s direction of travel, with a continuing increase in homelessness, increasing need for food banks and decreasing tolerance for minority groups. These are Christian values: serving the poorest and looking out for the most vulnerable. Amidst the swirl of conflicting voices – the clamour of competing claims, the church continues in its unfashionable and unchanging witness to the God who meets us just as we are, knows us better than we know ourself, and is the ultimate truth.

FOOD BANKS

St.Mary's Church has a long-established link with the Oasis Centre at Gorton. Please leave in the basket at the back of church donations of non-perishable food, clothes and baby requirements which will be taken to Oasis. Our partner church of St.Catherine, Birtles now also collects items for Oasis: these are brought to St.Mary's Church regularly by the Rector. <http://oasisgorton.org/>

The churches in Alderley Edge run food banks for the Alderley area. St.Mary's and St.Catherine's Church supports this work by prayer. If you would like to give practical help to the local food banks please contact the Rector and he can put you in touch with those who run these food banks.

On the impossibility of keeping silence in church

The Rectory
St. James the Least

My dear Nephew Darren

Your remark that you rather liked the silence we keep before starting Services gave me pause for thought. I suppose all things are relative. I know that the noise your congregation makes before worship resembles a packed stand on the football terraces any Saturday afternoon, but the days seem long-gone when I could expect our congregation to sit in real silence for ten minutes.

There's the sound of the treasurer counting the previous day's jumble sale takings, or the ladies at the back asking each other when the fish van will next come round, and of Major Hastings's deafening whisper as he comments some women's choice of hats. Add to this the weekly competition between the organist and the bell ringers to see who can make the most noise, the roar from the choir vestry as they all complain they don't like my choice of hymns and the sound of books, umbrellas and collection money being dropped. I sometimes suspect that an informal rota is arranged whereby people volunteer to drop heavy objects in rotation, thus maintaining a constant clatter, for which no single person can be held responsible.

There is also the weekly ritual when the vergers – always waiting until the church is full – goes round each microphone, giving them a bash and bellowing "Testing, testing" and relishing the echo as it bounces off the walls.

The only time the noise level drops significantly is if the congregation see Miss Simpson sidle up to me to have one of her confidential little chats about someone in the village. Everyone knows that her information will provide more than enough to keep gossip flourishing for the following week.

Equally, periods of silence during Services are rarely welcomed; some find them threatening, but the majority simply assume it means I have lost my place. I gave up after one occasion when, on announcing we would say the Lord's Prayer and then leaving a time of silence for recollection, a choirman leaned over to me and whispered helpfully: "It begins 'Our Father' ...."

Your loving Uncle Eustace

At the end of the Morning Service coffee and biscuits are provided by a stalwart group of volunteers in the Parish Hall.

Donations will be given to charity.

The Rector writes about the next Archbishop of York

Five days after the December General Election, the new Archbishop of York was announced: the Right Reverend Stephen Cottrell, currently the Bishop of Chelmsford. The Archbishop of York is responsible for the northern province of the Church of England which includes Chester Diocese. Archbishop John Sentamu will retire as Archbishop of York in 2020. On the day that his appointment was announced, Bishop Cottrell said: "I will receive the baton from Archbishop Sentamu. These aren't just big shoes to fill, but a big heart and a big vision. However, I am not daunted. Archbishop Sentamu and I have worked together in mission on many occasions and I hope to build on the work he has pioneered. Working alongside the Archbishop of Canterbury, I hope to help the church be more joyful and more effective in sharing the gospel and bringing hope and unity to our nation. Although I was born and grew up in Essex, I lived and served in Huddersfield for nine years. I know and love the north of England. Two of our children were born there. I now look forward to returning and being a voice for the North, sharing the liberating good news of the gospel and helping to address the discrepancies of wealth and opportunity that too often favour the South."

From the Honorary Treasurer:

On behalf of the PCC, many thanks to all those who have responded to the Rector's recent appeals to increase giving, it is very much appreciated. There have been a number of new standing orders together with some one-off donations. This additional income will really help to reduce the current level of the annual operating deficit of St Mary's.

There is still, however, some way to go to eliminate the deficit altogether. Therefore if anyone has not yet got around to looking at what they give could they please do so. The PCC is exploring various other ways of dealing with the deficit but this does not alleviate the need for all congregants to give what they can afford. It is also helpful if everyone can annually review what they give in order for St Mary's to meet ever increasing costs.

Paying by standing order makes it much easier all round for those involved and so if anyone wants to commence contributing in that way could they please contact either me or Don Henderson.

Thanks again. Will Ablett

Not Just Sunday: #EverydayFaith

WHAT IS IT: The Lay Conference 2020

WHEN IS IT: The weekend of 15 to 17 May 2020

WHERE IS IT: The Hayes Conference Centre, Swanwick, Derbyshire

Sunday morning is a time to draw closer to God and to reflect on the week gone by and the week to come. Many of us leave church with a spring in our step; the fellowship and joy we can experience can often fill us with the hope and encouragement we need to live and share our faith confidently with others. However, harnessing that confidence so that it sustains us and guides our words and actions and identity through the whole week, doesn't come easy to everyone all of the time.

At the Lay Conference, we will explore how we can encourage each other to live out our faith confidently every day of the week, Not just Sunday. We hope that everyone who attends will leave feeling encouraged and equipped. The aim is that all delegates will leave with: (i) a clearer sense of their Christian identity in everyday life, individually and collectively; (ii) an increased confidence to express their everyday faith; and (iii) an idea of how the gathered church can resource everyday faith.

To find out more, go to: <https://chester.anglican.org/lay-conference-2020>

Each Parish Church is asked to send a Nominated Person to the conference. Keep an eye on the Sunday news sheet and Facebook for more information.

Our representative on two bodies which help to bind St.Mary's Church into the wider church.

For many years, Terry Fones has represented St.Mary's Church on both Knutsford Deanery Synod and the Churches Together in Alderley Committee. Every parish church is required by Canon Law to have both lay and clergy representation on the Deanery Synod, and Terry has been our lay representative for many years. In our area, the ecumenical grouping joins the Methodist, Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches in Alderley Edge with St.Mary's Church. Terry has been our representative on the committee for this for a long time. Terry is now retiring from serving in these two roles. Thank you Terry for your commitment and faithfulness in these two ministries!

If you would like to succeed Terry in one or both roles please talk with Terry or the Rector
